Each member of the PCC was asked to introduce themselves and state what their roll was on the PCC and what over the last year had inspired them about St Andrew's, what had been well managed in the life of the Church and any concerns over the current and future of the Church.

Archdeacon John summarised his views of what had been discussed and confirmed that he would be producing his report with recommendation which would be sent to Rev. Steve Griffiths. He thanked the PCC for their warm welcome and openness.

The meeting was concluded in prayer lead by the Archdeacon.
